Eurobank EFG supports the Serbian Ministry of Interior

The Bank provided equipment for Teaching Centre “Makiš” and Foreign Residents Department

Belgrade, January 29, 2010 - Eurobank EFG has donated used office furniture and IT equipment to the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia. The largest part of the donation, worth RSD 830.000, refers to equipment for the Teaching Centre “Makiš”, and the Foreign Residents Department of Savski Venac in Belgrade. Teaching Centre “Makiš” is used for all types of police outdoor activities, as well as for trainings of the members of the Organized Crime Task Force. The agreement for the donation was signed today by Dejan Matić, the Serbian Assistant Interior Minister, and Slavica Pavlovic, Member of the Executive Board of Eurobank EFG in Serbia.

“With this donation, we are pleased to support education of the young staff of the Serbian Ministry of Interior. It is Eurobank EFG’s business policy to donate the equipment which is not used anymore, to public institutions which need it. Serbian Ministry of Interior was significantly contributing the process of visa liberalization and we are proud to support their future activities, such as education of police forces and department for foreigners, says Slavica Pavlovic, Member of the Executive Board of Eurobank EFG in Serbia.

Through its comprehensive corporate social responsibility program titled “We invest into European values”, Eurobank EFG has supported education, environmental protection, public healthcare and inclusive society in Serbia, by investing over EUR 3mio. Eurobank EFG has been recognized among leaders in responsible business, confirmed by the prestigious “Virtus” award for contribution to the local community the granted to the Bank in December 2009.
